

DAILY BULLETIN

October 1, 2020

The Warren Hills Regional School District will once again participate in the New Jersey Governor's Educator of the Year Recognition Program.

This program honors hardworking teachers and educational services professionals, bringing public attention to the work of outstanding educators.

Administrators, staff, students, parents as well as community members are invited to nominate an outstanding professional for this recognition program. Information on how to submit your nomination is available on the Warren Hills website. Deadline is November 11, 2020.

AND REMEMBER.... LET'S JUST BE NICE TO EACH OTHER!