

DAILY BULLETIN
Friday, April 21, 2017
Day 1

Wouldn't you like to take refreshing walk outdoors after a long morning of PARCC testing? Well here's your opportunity. On Wednesday, April 26 students and staff will be encouraged to participate in the first ever 1 Mile Lunch Walk for Organ and Tissue Donation Awareness. Be on the lookout for upcoming announcements and information about how you can register to get outside and participate during our upcoming Lunch Walk for Organ Donor Awareness.

Attention 7th Grade National Junior Honor Society Inductees: Please hand in your paperwork for the Induction Ceremony today. If you have any questions, please see Mrs. Muffley ASAP!!

Any student interested in the Horizons Art Symposium on May 17th and May 18th, please stop by the Main Office to pick up a permission slip. The Art Symposium is an opportunity to work with professionals in writing, dance, drama, costume design and music, and then work with your peers to pull it all together into a production. You must be able to attend both days, and spaces are available on a first come, first served basis. So please return your slips promptly!!!

Attention 7th Graders: It's your turn to order a t-shirt. It's for your Field Day happening on Friday, 5/19. Every year for Field Day each homeroom is assigned a color. You will learn what color you are soon. But first you need to order a t-shirt. They are only $6.00. This morning your HR teacher passed out an order form. Please complete and return to your HR teacher by Monday, April 24th. Any questions please see Sra. Zamora in room 202.

A reminder to all students: PARCC testing will begin on Monday morning. Get a good night's sleep, eat a healthy breakfast, and be on time for school! Also, do not forget to bring your headphones or ear buds and a pencil. Good luck to everyone!

On Wednesday April 26th we will be having our walk at lunch to promote organ and tissue donation. We are encouraging all staff and students to get into the spirit and wear your green and blue.

And Remember... Let's just be nice to each other today!