Need to Know

1. Individual freedoms: what are they? What are the five basic freedoms in the 1st amendment?
2. What is the Bill of Rights and when was it ratified? Why do we need a Bill of Rights? What was the argument against it?
3. What are the first 10 amendments? (Make flash cards)
4. Study the handout that gave examples of amendment rights and how those rights were being violated.
5. Study the Tinker and Skokie cases. Look over your cause and effect graph and look at the who, what, where, when, and why information. Understand: why is the case important to American society?
