Superintendent’s Report:

Dr. Altonjy reported on the following:

1. Our high school and middle school Back To School Nights were held on Thursday, 22 September and Tuesday, 27 September, respectively. After opening sessions conducted by the principals, parents followed an abbreviated form of their children’s schedules to meet teachers and learn about the curriculum and classroom expectations. Attendance rates were 50% at the high school and 62% at the middle school.

2. A parent workshop sponsored by the district entitled Navigating the NJ Anti-Bullying Student Bill of Rights Act...A Parents’ Perspective will be held tomorrow evening, 5 October 2011, from 7:00PM-9:00PM in the high school auditorium. All parents are encouraged to attend.

3. This week marks the inception of The Week of Respect as a component of our anti-bullying initiative.

- At the middle school, the following activities are happening:
  - Teachers are voluntarily setting aside one class period during the week with each of their classes to do an anti-bullying activity related to the specific academic discipline. LAL, science, math, & geography/civics teachers were provided possible lesson plans to use, while teachers of other curricular areas are researching possible lessons/activities.
  - Daily activities at the middle school include:
    - Monday: Wear Blue for peace and safety
    - Tuesday: 30 Minute extended Homeroom to read/discuss pages in students agenda books regarding values and character
    - Wednesday: Public Service Announcements will play during lunch
    - Thursday: Rachel’s Challenge Assembly
    - Friday: Positive message music will be playing in the cafeteria

- At the high school, to recognize this week long event, peer leaders will:
  - Recruit freshmen and sophomores for participation in weekly discussion groups
  - Create and display a banner in the front foyer with the week’s theme: BUILD BRIDGES NOT WALLS.
  - Provide an opportunity during lunches for all students to sign a respect banner and pledge to help create a culture of respect in our school community.
  - As in the middle school, teachers have been asked to take an opportunity, when appropriate, to connect their curriculum content to the week’s theme.

Special thanks to our principals, Mr. Clymer & Mrs. Hetrick, our district anti-bullying coordinator, Mrs. Unangst, and anti-bullying school specialists, Ms. Hollenbeck and Mr. Downs, for all their leadership in this endeavor.

4. The Cycle II results have been released and the update on our Biology state testing scores shows that we are very much in sync with our DFG counterparts:

5. Mr. Perruso, middle school civics teacher, recently received a handwritten letter from Supreme Court Justice Stephen Breyer thanking him for teaching civics to students with a project he had students engage in last year. Students studied the biographies of the justices and had to note a personal connection with one of them, writing about what they would like to do or talk about with one of them if given the chance. These were then sent to the appropriate justices.

Justice Breyer wrote in response to Anastasia (Stacey) Giordano who wrote about her enjoyment of camping and the outdoors. She is currently a high school student.

6. Congratulations to Natalie Savage for being the first girl in school history to win the Tennis Champion title at the Hunterdon/Warren/Sussex Tournament.

7. Congratulations to Lindsey Schott for achieving a career goal scoring record holder in Field Hockey.

8. Mr. Clymer, WHRHS Principal, announced the following students have been named Recipients in the National Merit Scholarship Program and received Letters of Commendation:
   - John P. Finnegan
   - Leigh Anne Schriever
   - Stephanie Tarlowe

9. Thank you to Mrs. Julia Henning and the Alternative Education students at the middle school for their beautification efforts in planting seasonal mums around the entrance flagpole.

10. Mr. Clymer, WHRHS Principal, announced the following Ninth Grade students of the month for September:
Ken Wilson – Male Student of the Month
Maggie Griffin – Female Student of the Month
Simon Ficken – Art Student of the Month
Kyle Kaspereen – Character Pillar Student of the Month
Amanda Crampton – Athlete of the Month

11. The NJ Department of Education has notified Mrs. Dawn Moore, Director of Curriculum & Instruction, that 2012 No Child Left Behind (NCLB) Consolidated Application has been approved and all application deadlines met.

12. Mrs. Moore sponsored Colin Mason, a regional ATLAS curriculum mapping facilitator, to train the Content Specialists in the more advanced features of ATLAS. Several content specialists were able to turn-key the ATLAS curriculum training during the 09/22/11 and 09/27/11 half-day in-service days.

13. Our inclusion partnerships were in-serviced by expert Toby Karten and will be informally observed and conferenced over the next couple of months in order to explore their inclusion practices to reach all students in the classrooms.

14. At the suggestion of teacher Laura Blackwell, Jenika Wimmer was selected as one of twenty finalists out of 800 students who participated in the Mahatma Gandhi Art and Writing Contest. This past Sunday at Princeton University, Jenika received a Second Place award. Congratulations, Jenika!

15. This coming Monday, 10 October, is an in-service day and schools are closed for students only. Our faculties – at both schools – will come together to articulate, learn, and explore further district initiatives, particularly the implementation of the Common Core State Standards and writing across the curriculum.

There is a need to change the Board of Education meeting dates in November. The first monthly meeting, originally scheduled for 1 November 2011, will now be held on 8 November 2011. The second monthly meeting, originally scheduled for 15 November 2011, will now be held on 29 November 2011. This will allow a better distribution of meeting times during the normally disruptive month of November (with Teachers Convention and Thanksgiving) and the single meeting month of December.
