Audit Annual Audit Presentation – William Schroeder of Nisivoccia and Co., Auditor of Record

Architect Spiezel Architectural Group presented the work-up to date in preparation for the update to the Long Range Facilities Plan. Tony Catana explained it was a 3-prong process:

(1) Physical assessment, completed initial building assessment package. One of the nicest building he has walked through – nothing out of place;

(2) Review with principals and assess needs;

(3) Review with administrators and go over what they have so as to not duplicate.

Goals Moved by Kristin Fox and seconded by Linda Feller to approve District Goals for the 2015-2016 School Year:

- Review, research, assess, and recommend fiscal efficiencies in both the instructional and operational/non-instructional components of the 2016-2017 district budget.
- The middle school Gifted & Talented program for grades 7-8 will be reviewed, assessed, researched for optimal methodologies resulting in recommendations for modification as may be appropriate.
- Resources in time and outside expert consultation will be made available to the Middle and High School Bell Schedule (EBD) committees so that each may fully and fairly consider future modifications to their respective daily instructional schedules in grades 7-8 and 9-12 independently.

Supt's Report Superintendent's Report:

Superintendent's Report - Dr. Gary R. Bowen

Good News and Progress

- MS Veteran's Day Program – Maggie Devine and Mike Perruso coordinated the program to honor our local men and women who have served in our armed forces. Veterans were treated to breakfast and lunch and then stayed to share their personal stories.
- MS Talent Show – The talent show as held on 11/11/15 with performances by students and teachers alike thanks to the efforts of Lauren Voight, Jackie Gibbs, Barb Russo, Amanda Best, Lee Turkowski, Mackenzie Holguin, Katie McCormick, Kate Morgan, Teresa McGuinness, Jeanie Zamora and Tara Paulus.

- MS Students of the Month: Academics: Julia Teets, Josh Rosillo, Zanyah Beckett and Zachary Kilduff Athletics: Emily Schlessinger and Danny Hackett.
- The MD Holiday Brunch Celebration will be held December 18th, with details about the spring luncheon to follow.
- Lauren Voight and Amanda Brown from the Fine Arts Department will host the MD classes from surrounding towns to view the choir's dress rehearsal on December 8th.
- Director of Special Education, Annette Walters, completed Crisis Intervention Training with law enforcement and surrounding community service agencies.
- Several of our high school athletes signed letters of intent to attend various universities:
 - Maddie Smith – Softball – Penn State
 - Anthony Veneziano – Baseball – Coastal Carolina
 - Rachel Phillips – Field Hockey – University of Vermont
 - Kaitlin Thompson – Field Hockey – West Chester
- For the 11th year in a row, the Computer Science Library Showcase will be held on December 11, 2015. Thirty classes will attend the showcase which is the culminating celebration for Computer Science Week activities held from December 7, 2015 to December 11, 2015.
- Twenty-three classes, grades 7-12, will be participating in the Hour of Code to encourage students to participate in computer science courses and programs. Over 1,000 students will be participating in the week's activities.
- High school health classes hosted several guest speakers November 20, 2015 to discuss topics related to safe citizenship during a Library Showcase. Students were given the opportunity to ask questions and learn about the importance of protecting themselves and others.
- Driver Education classes are participating in an art-inspired traffic safety program through the Nikhi Badlani Foundation. Stay tuned for the unveiling of this artwork that will deliver the message of safe driving to the Warren Hills community.
- Warren Hills Senior Kaitlin Rock can be heard singing on a commercial for "Santa Paws" sponsored by Phillipsburg/Easton Hyundai. The commercial is airing on 99.9 The Hawk. Last year Kaitlin entered a "Sing Like a Snow Queen" contest and won! Part of the prize was to record the vocals for this commercial.

- The Warren Hills Cluster Curriculum Committee will be meeting December 9, 2015 with teacher representatives from our district and sending schools to continue their work on “big ideas” in English, Language Arts and Mathematics curricula. The work will produce a common bank of essential English Language Arts and Mathematics vocabulary and agreed upon instructional content.
- The Administrative Team is reviewing and re-structuring the soon-to-be-published 2016-2017 Program of Studies for students, teachers, parents and guardians.
- Several district representatives reviewed the New Jersey Quality Single Accountability Continuum (NJQSAC) and completed the Statement of Assurance and the District Performance Review, a requirement every three years. A PowerPoint of the report will be presented at tonight’s BOE meeting and will be posted on the district’s website.
- FFA members studied hard and performed well at a recent Fruit and Vegetable Identification and Milk Quality and Products Career Development Events held at Rutger’s University. The Milk Quality and Products Team placed 3rd in the state out of 19 teams. Kaitlin Smith placed 6th out of 60 contestants. Brittany Smith placed 13th, Richard Wyble placed 35th, and Patrick Schutts placed 40th. The Fruit and Vegetable Identification team placed 17th out of 27 teams.
