O. Public Comment

Maggie Devine advocated for full time position of Belah Shaw, Library Assistant, for past seven years.

Lauren Walsh, a senior at the high school, stated petition was started to keep Mrs. Shaw's position.

Dr. Lyn Kowski of Franklin Township spoke about students being more successful if not going to class dismayed and concerned that programs have been cut such as freshmen sports.

Craig Green, coach, stated help needed, he tried to enact a middle school volleyball team and 30 girls showed up. Give consideration to adding a club, since their only exposure is at physical education class.

Christine Drevich from Washington Township has worked with kids in town and it is wonderful to see them involved in school.

Jesse O'Neil taught History/English sixteen years – students use the library to learn, this is only possible because of library staff.

Rob Wintersteen spoke about the tremendous impact his wife, Patricia Wintersteen, had on Mr. Cadigan's son. She got him to stand up and share with audience what it meant to be an autistic child. The next day he's getting "hello's" from students. He used to sit in the cafeteria by himself, now he has 5-6 students sitting with him.

Allen Home's son has sensory issues and gets overwhelmed. He runs to his aide who is an integral part of his day.

Daryl Detrick reiterated what was said – some of these paras have been here for 19 years. Warren Hills has 1900 students, Superintendent, two Assistant Superintendents and Director of Human Resources. People on board from Washington Township are considered your constituents. Mrs. Marshall, as my representation on the Board from Washington Township, would like for you to consider the impact of the aides.
