Citizens Participation: None.
The Annual New Jersey Week of Respect will be celebrated October 5-9. This year’s activities and recognition include:

- Warren Hills Regional students will hear morning announcement related to the topics of friendships, respect, and good citizenship. Teachers, counselors, administrators and others will focus on discussions throughout the week on the topic of respect.

- Thanks to the Middle School PTSA MAGIC grant awarded to Mrs. Jeannie Zamora, the middle school is enjoying a week-long cultural program titled “United Rhythms and Visions” brought to students and staff by presenter, Mr. Luis DeJesus. The program is being held during the Week of Respect and began with assemblies to the entire school focusing on respect and appreciation for our cultural differences. The remainder of the week includes small group sessions in the library, where Mr. DeJesus is sharing his knowledge of a vast collection of instruments, music and art from all around the world, giving students the hands on opportunity to engage and interact with his varied collection. We thank the PTSA for awarding our students this interesting opportunity!

Other:

- Two films from our high school were chosen as official selections for the 2015 All American High School Film Festival. Dylan Yanow for his film, “Airbourne” and former student, Peter Despres for his film, “Life Could Be Simple.” As official selections, their films will be screened the weekend of October 9-11th at the AMC Empire Theaters in New York City’s Times Square. There were thousands of submissions from over 48 states and 30 countries. Film design teacher Richard Patricia expressed his pride that both of their films made the cut. Their films will be judged by film greats: Henry Winkler, Ed Burns, Dylan McDermott, Kristen Stewart, Robert Wuhl and many others. Dylan and Peter will be able to attend several screenings and panel discussions throughout the weekend.

- Middle School Back-to-School Night held on September 24 was well attended and a very positive event with approximately 65% of students’ families in attendance.
• Football team requested game with North Plainfield to be at home.
• Calls were received in our office about mono. Dr. Avelone discussed having a letter on our website, on St. Luke’s Hospital letterhead, describing the symptoms and to see your primary care physician if you were concerned.
